Prayer for Guidance

Dear God,

Please teach me to remember
Life is beautiful, is gay;
That somewhere in each moment
Of every dreary day
There lies one ray of sunshine
That I'm too blind to see,
That somewhere is an answer
To pain and misery.

Please teach me to be patient
Of things not understood;
And know that all life's workings
Can be a power for good.
Let me love my neighbor,
No matter what he be,
For such is all Your teaching
To all who would be free.

Please give me will to follow
In the footpaths You have trod,
And let my eyes be opened
To brotherhood in God.
Let my heart be humbled
By faith my brothers share,
For creeds should never matter
When men are met in prayer.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by James E. Walter

My heartiest congratulations to the Class of 1980. As we enter the decade of the 1980's, we turn with high hopes to the future and among our brightest hopes are the young men and women of your class who have successfully earned their degrees at Piedmont College.

As I talk with young men and women who seek the best way to make their contribution to life, I recall many of you of the Class of 1980 who have contributed much to our College life and whose later careers I shall follow with deep interest.

Among the many high lights of your years at Piedmont College, I recall that your freshman class (1976) was the largest class of incoming students in the history of the College! That meant that Piedmont was continuing to meet a very real need in the lives of young people by providing a quality education in a Christian environment. It meant also that Piedmont College must continue to find additional resources to provide for the academic needs of this greater number of young people.

I am happy to report that this was accomplished through the sensitive and concerned friends of the College who joined with the faculty, staff, and trustees in meeting the increased needs and insuring the future of the College. In 1977, Piedmont College was able to accomplish its long-sought goal when its Endowment Fund Campaign went over the top of the $1.5 million goal, thereby matching on a two-for-one basis the generous gift of $750,000 from an anonymous donor. I am deeply grateful to God and to every donor who had a part in this beautiful miracle for our College. These permanent endowment funds will produce essential income throughout the future for the enrichment of the young people who will follow you in seeking to "know the truth" which makes them free.

Another high light which I recall from your years at Piedmont was your response as a part of our student body to the tragedy which struck our neighboring college at Toccoa Falls. Never shall I forget that morning when representatives of the Student Government Association approached me to request the privilege of inviting everyone at our regular Wednesday morning chapel service to share in a free-will offering for the relief of our unfortunate friends at Toccoa Falls College who had been the victims of the raging flood torrent. Here in our College, indeed, was God-inspired compassion at work! Your response was tremendous. We had known the young men and women of Toccoa Falls College as fellow students. Now we knew them also as persons who, facing bitter losses, nevertheless continued to sing their faith with confidence.

As I move around the country, I am proud to tell our supporters of the College choir and musical ensemble. It was a member of your class, also, who organized the volunteer group of young men and women who provided us with several chapel numbers as well as evening concerts. We shall always remember this joyous group of young people who took the name, "Joy Explosion," and their leader, Wendy Hawks. It was a member of your class, also, who put Piedmont College on the map when Martha Kelly, as Piedmont's 1978 Homecoming Queen, represented Georgia at the Orange Bowl Festival in Miami in 1978. I am proud that we have in Martha a person chosen to represent the College on the basis of academic achievement, extracurricular activities, personal interests, and good grooming. She is every inch the young woman we delight to help to acquire a college education. I am proud that for four years she served in my office as student secretary. I am also proud that as a class you elected her as your president for the coming years in the Alumni Association.

During your class's years at Piedmont, in 1977, womens' interscholastic basketball was reinstated after an interim period of 25 years! The Lady Lions have since well earned the reputation as one of the outstanding teams of Northern Georgia. During those years mens' basketball also has brought Piedmont glory, and during your freshman year advanced the farthest in the conference and district tournaments in the history of the College.

During your Class's years at Piedmont, the College faculty and administration underwent inevitable changes. On February 25, 1979, you shared our sorrow in the passing of Mrs. Edith Scott, who had been so long artist-in-residence and who had made her home in Getman-Babcock Residence Hall. One year later we dedicated in the College Library a number of panels for the display of art work, the gift of her son as a memorial to his mother.

Your Class saw the departure of Dean Jodie L. Burton and his lovely wife, one of our alumnae, and of our Registrar for many years, Dr. John Ben Ayers. They were happily replaced in 1978 by Dr. Mary C. Lane, as Dean, with whom many of you had studied professional education; and Mr. Nolan Nix, as Registrar. Many of you also knew and loved Dr. Mary L. Griggs, professor of mathematics, who retired in 1978 after many years of service at Piedmont College.

As President of Piedmont College, now for more than 30 years, I feel humble and grateful for the role Mrs. Walter and I have had in working together for society's enrichment through the dedicated labor of Christian young people who have matured under the discipline of four years at Piedmont College. I am grateful to all the churches and individuals who support us financially. Most of all I am grateful for the opportunity God provides for spiritual growth, social maturity, and academic achievement for all who come to Piedmont College and who are receptive to its teachings.

May God richly bless you in the coming years and may you remember us at Piedment College with the affection we feel for each one of you.

This life is like a journey and the roadway twists and bends - and we fall in with strange companions, unexpected friends, that go with us a little way then pass out of our sight - all links that make our destinies, then fade in to the night . . . So when we form acquaintances it's up to us to see - we leave them just a little better for our company - give them kind works to recollect, thoughts that uplift and bless - let them back without a single thought of bitterness . . . So find some fellow-traveler that you can love and trust - who'll go with you through sun and rain, through heat and storm and dust - Someone to help you on the way, a good and faithful friend - and hand in hand you'll travel gaily to your journey's end.

. . . And the girls. Suzi, Cheryl, Connie, Susan, Kim, Martha and Teresa.

Piedmont

The Caretaker, Harold Pinter's masterpiece, was performed at Piedmont on October 19th and 20th by the nationally acclaimed Academy Theater of Atlanta. This two day program included a performance on Friday evening, and on Saturday morning, two workshops were offered. One was for general interest, presented at student level, and the other was a special interest workshop for adults with some experience in drama and for those who work with youth in dramatic productions. The Caretaker, a story about three hilariously eccentric, yet mysterious characters, superbly combines tantalizing suspense with exquisite humor to produce vastly entertaining theater. The performances were presented with the assistance from the Ga. Council for the Arts and Humanities, the National Endowment for the Arts and the federally sponsored Special Services Project at Piedmont College.

On May 2, 1980, Miss Marion Cawood performed a vocal recital in the Chapel at Piedmont. Marion Cawood has won acclaim throughout the country for her recitals and performances with such orchestras as the Nashville Symphony, Little Rock Symphony, Kingsport Symphony, Jackson Symphony and the Lexington Symphony. A winner of numerous contests, Miss Cawood won first place in the Metropolitan Opera District Auditions for two consecutive years. She is presently an artist in residence and vocal instructor at David Lipscomb College in Nashville, Tenn. Miss Cawoods recital at Piedmont included songs by Johannes Brahms, Richard Strauss, Charles Ives, and others.

On Wednesday, Oct. 17, David Pengelly, guitar and vocalist, presented a concert in Jenkins Auditorium. David Pengelly, an entertainer in the classic sense of the word, made his sixth appearance at Piedmont. A native of Bergen, in upstate New York, Pengelly now calls Atlanta his home. His concert at Piedmont brought to the college his unique style of sensitive ballad, broadway show tunes, country and western as well as the best of contemporary music. Pengelly's versatile use of acoustic guitar, electric guitar, banjo, and harmonica to accompany his rich baritone voice and dynamic stage personality afford something for everyone's taste in music.

Lyceums

Joy Explosion, a secular choir organized and directed by Wendy Hawks, performed an assortment of musical numbers at a concert given in the school chapel on Wednesday, May 21. The program consisted of songs that satisfied a variety of musical tastes. The concert included several solos, duets, quartets, men and womens' girls choir and Joy Explosion. The first half of the program consisted mainly of traditional and pop songs, while the second half was directed more toward country and gospel. Alan Charles, Tim Little, Doug Vermilya and Keith Nuckolls, a gospel quartet, brought the house down with their version of two gospel favorites. The program ended with a medley from the hit movie "Grease". The group was organized with the purpose of allowing students with musical talents and desires to work together and delight others with their enthusiasm, abilities and love for music. Judging from the audience's response, they have succeeded with their purpose!

The Chamber Choir is a select group of students from the Womens' Resident College and the Communtiy College of Brenau College. The Chamber Choir has received an ever-increasing reputation for precise performances with sensitivity and understanding. Their repertoire includes music from the major periods of music. The director was Mr. David Lee Johnson, an associate Professor of Fine Arts at Brenau College. The choir performed a variety of numbers ranging from sacred and international songs to the popular Lennon and McCartney medley. Mr. Mark Wright, a '79 graduate of Piedmont, was a member of this fabulous chamber choir and we are grateful to Mark for arranging this presentation for Piedmont and the Community members.

Piedmont College, along with the cooperation of Special Programs, contracted with Alpha-Omega Players of the Repertory Theater of America to present a musical comedy "The Diary of Adam and Eve." Eight lilting songs, humor and nostalgia combine to provide a new perspective on the lives of the first man and first woman. Adapted from Mark Twain's famous short story by the same title, the play dramatizes the age-old struggle between man and woman. It was a delightful evening of wholesome entertainment for everyone who attended.

The various members of the Piedmont College Instrumental Ensemble performed special music for many of the chapel services, the annual faculty/staff Christmas party and Honors Day Assembly. Debbie Grant accompanied the choir on their tour to Alabama and Florida; Abe Harris played his drums for the Joy Explosion concert; John May provided several sentimental numbers both in chapel, concerts and assemblies; Brian Terrell and Myra Ferguson also performed musical preludes in the morning chapel services. Melanie Striebich pleased everyone with her exceptional talent at playing the clarinet and Anthony Sims did a magnificent job with his French horn solos. Instrumental duets, trios, and quartets were also played by the above instrumentalists. Mr. Boggess should be commended on his fine job with the Piedmont band and choir.

The 1980 Piedmont College Chapel Choir performed regularly for the Chapel services held every Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Ralph Boggess performed a variety of sacred tunes, many times accompanied by Debbie Grant with the flute or Abe Harris on the drums. Wendy Hawks helped out with the direction of the choir at times. Besides being the principle pianist for the choir, Mr. Boggess also plays the organ for the Chapel and Vespers services. The Chapel choir also performed a special all-musical vespers service once each quarter. In the Spring quarter, the Chapel choir and Debbie Grant took a short tour to Alabama and Florida. On the tour, the choir put on a short musical program at various churches at night and the choir sang in the church service in Tallassee, Florida. Overnight accomodations were taken care of by members of the churches and everyone went home with the church members. I'm sure it's a trip many of the choir members will never forget.

The International Students Association of Piedmont College is made up of sixteen students representing seven countries of the world. The seven countries are Ghana, Malasia, Nigeria, Venezuela, Mexico, Japan and Haiti. The group participates in cultural and recreational programs during the year, such as a hike in the mountains, a picnic and cultural exchanges. Cultural exchange is the relating of one's country and culture to a group of people. Nta Henshaw and Jide Aremu told about their country, Nigeria; it's geographics, it's cultures and societies. It is hoped that eventually everyone in the International Students Association will relate something about their country. This not only helps to build the confidence of the foreign students but it also broadens their views about other countries and helps them with the English language. Mr. Nolan Nix is the faculty advisor.

The Piedmont College Student Government Association is responsible for many of the activities that occur at Piedmont. In the fall and spring quarters of the 79-80 school year, they sponsored the American Red Cross Blood Drive. They were responsible for the Homecoming/Valentine Dance and the Orientation dance. Along with help from S.G.A.E., they held the Yonahian Dance and they in turn helped S.G.A.E. with the disco which followed the Miss Piedmont Pageant. They organized and held the Miss Homecoming contest and also the Sports Banquet, May 21. As a service to the students of Piedmont College, they kept the student center open five days a week. Here the students has their choice of pool, ping-pong, darts, foosball, shuffleboard, cards or a variety of other games.

In the Spring there is an annual Miss Piedmont Pageant established and directed by Donald Hitt. They thank everyone for their help with the pageant; the girls, photographer, music and light technicians, judges, sponsors, parents and the student body. Every year there is an annual SGAE workshop. This year it was held at Covington, Ga. There was also a State Convention which was held in Atlanta, Ga. At this convention Mike Lothridge was voted in as the second Vice-President. SGAE received plaques for their bulletin board, scrapbook, and they were also named the Chapter of the year.

The Piedmont College Spanish Honor Society is a society made up of a group of students who receive an A or B average in their spanish courses for two consecutive quarters. It also consists of the spanish majors and minors and some very special people who are honorary members. Such members are Mark Wright, who played piano in the spanish programs for the last five years, Richard Lusk, who always was willing to help the Spanish Dept. anyway he could, and Donnie Hitt, who has been the master of ceremony at many of our spanish programs the past few years. Officers are elected by the Spanish Honor Society every year and so is a Miss Spanish Honor Society. This years Miss Spanish Honor Society was Miss Debbie Meeks and Mr. Spanish Honor Society was Mr. David Friend. The Spanish Honor Society officers were: Wendy Hawks - President; Wesley Davis - Vice President; and Suzi Rice - secretary. The Spanish Honor Society is not to be confused with the Spanish Folklore Group, which performs the many fantastic programs throughout the year, even though they both contain many of the same members. The Spanish Honor Society holds a brunch during break or a spanish lunch (usually tacos or pastel de carne) at least twice a year for its members to enjoy.

ΘΖΦ

The Theta Zeta Phi Society is an organization in which the girls at Piedmont have the chance of being a part of. Each Fall Quarter, there is a pledgeship which every new member must go through. This gives the girls a chance to get to know each other. The pledges are then inducted into the society as full fledge sisters. During the year the group works hard to earn money for a trip to Florida after Spring Quarter. This past year the big money-earner was the Gong Show. The Theta Zeta's sold tickets and gave away a television set as the door prize. There were also prizes for the winners of the show. The Theta Zeta's provide a place for the girls to be part of a family while at College. It gives them "sisters" they can go to with problems or just when they need a friend. The main purpose of this organization is to support and promote "Friendship". For that is one of the most important lessons you learn at College. How to build and keep a good friendship. The Theta Zeta's would like to give this prayer to each of you.

Lord, help me live from day to day, In such a self-forgetful way. That even when I kneel to pray, My prayer shall be for "others", And when my work on earth is done, and my new work in Heaven's begun, May I forget the crown I've won, while thinking still of "others". "Others", Lord, yes, "Others". Let this my motto be. Help me to live for others, that I may live for Thee.

Getman-Babcock Hall

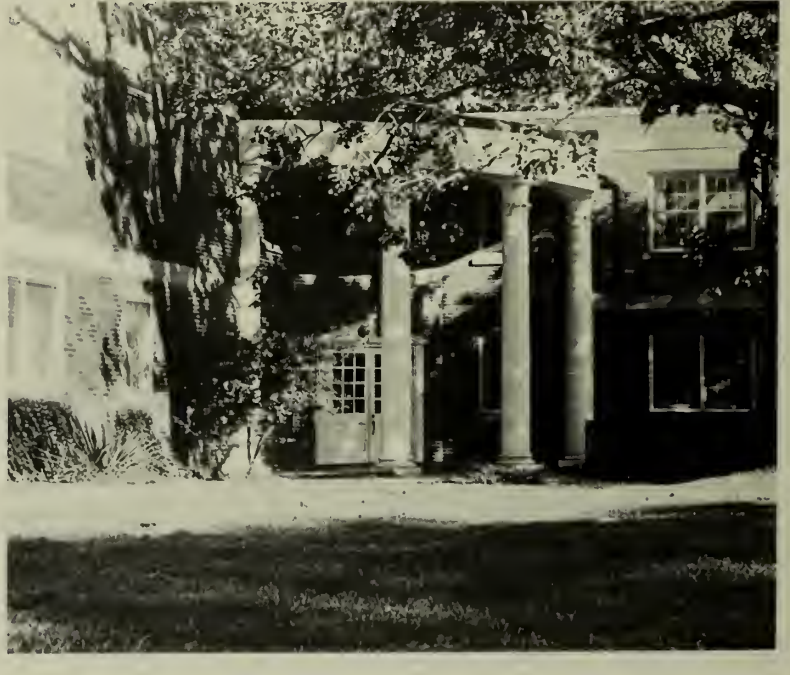

Sitting: Phyllis Verdell, Sherry Clegg, Jackie Hitt, Connie Stowe, Martha Kelly, Dale Andrews, Becky Mumpower, Jan Long, Debi Grant, Brenda Mizell, Janet Butler, Standing: Pat Copeland, Kwai Mui Chan, Laurencia Santamaria, Terresa Hubacek, Ruth Jean-Guillaume, Helen Fowler, Kim Ellis, Kathy Smith, Trudy Ingram, Sherry Allen, Shari Clanton, Cindy Clegg, Sonya Chaney, Mary Montgomery, Naty Parodi, Gloria Boler, Cheryl Summers. Second row: Joan Schenkel, Lanita Shirley, Charlene Maggard, Joanne Addison.

Rules, regulations, laws, whatever you want to call them, the girls at Getman-Babcock Hall had their share of them. 11:00 curfew, no men in the rec room, 15 minute phone calls (30 if long distance), a quite dormitory at 9:00 (that means your stereo gets turned down, Naty!), clean up the kitchen when you are through with it, and of course, who could ever forget the ever dreaded room inspection?

How did we do it? I guess there were some good times, too. Remember the Christmas party? People getting thrown in the shower? (All in good fun of course). Fighting over the soap operas in the afternoon. (There was always SOMEone who didn't want to watch Another World!) Remember all the late nights on the balcony cramming for that history or business test we forgot all about? Or who could forget the nights before dorm inspection? Vacuums were running until 2:00 in the morning. (We always ran out of Comet, too, didn't we?)

Ah, those were the days . . . The dorm is what you make it. I think we made it pretty livable. What do you think?

The Girls Dorm Proctors And Dorm Parents

Cheryl Summers, Sonya Chaney, Trudy Ingram.

The girls dorm proctors are chosen by the girls in the dorm to be their leaders in dormitory matters. The proctors main responsibility was to lock up the dorm at curfew and make sure everyone was in. At times they were called upon to hold a floor meeting to inform the girls on their floor of what was going on. They are the girls that are looked to for leadership, for friendship, as well as being the confidants of the dorm.

This was the Loftices last year as dorm parents. They are going to live off campus next year and we want to wish them well. Debbie says she enjoyed being the dorm mother. She was a combination of mother, sister, priest, confidant and counselor. "It was a terrific experience for Jerry, the kids, and myself. I'll miss it more than I can say." What will Debbie miss the most next to her girls? Studying with everyone!

Dormitory

"A building providing sleeping accommodations", is how the dictionary defines dormitory. It is hoped that Purcell Hall means more than that to those who reside there-in.

D eveloping individual growth.
O ur "home way from home".
R ooms reflecting the personalities and interests of the occupants.
M aturity.
I nterests extended and expanded through close personal contacts.
T ogetherness.
O thers - learning to respect the rights and needs of roommates, suitemates and friends.
R oommates - building lasting friendships.
Y ou finding yourself, identifying your strengths, interests, weaknesses and needs.

"Dorm life" is a combination of laughs and sorrow, fun and trials, independence and dependence - all making some contribution to one's total education.

Piedmont College Lions

Boy's Varsity: The boys' varsity had a season of 9 and 16. They showed everyone what "movin' on up" really meant. Though the season was trying, Coach O'Neil Cave led his talented team to many victories. Way to go Lion's!

Jr. Varsity: The Jr. Varsity basketball team had its share of plenty of tough competition. Even though their record was 0 and 4 they tried hard in every game and showed the good ol' college try. The J.V. coach was David Friend, a student at Piedmont.

Piedmont College Lady Lions

Standing: Marie Williams; manager, Rita Tench, Phyllis Verdell, Mary Montgomery, Crystal Wood, Dale Andrews, Coach Jerry Loftice. Kneeling: Sherry Clegg; manager, Sonya Chaney, Terresa Hubacek, Cindy Wicks, Lanita Shirley.

Hustle! Teamwork! Sweat! Determination! These words make up the Lady Lions basketball team. Their standings were 11 wins and 14 losses. Every player contributed to each game including three returners; Phyllis "Flash" Verdell, Crystal "Magic" Wood, and Dale Andrews. Mary Montgomery lead the Lady Lions with her 52.6 field goal percentage. Mary was followed by Lanita Shirley with 52% and "Flash" Verdell with 47.2%. Verdell proved to be the hustler on the team by leading both in rebounds and steals. Flash had 364 rebounds for an average of 14.6 per game. She was succeeded by Mary Montgomery with 259 and Crystal Wood with 103. Flash also stole the ball 63 times during the course of the year. In the over-all scoring category, Mary Montgomery lead the team with an average of 17 points a game. She was pursued closely by Crystal Wood with an average of 15.5 points per game and Lanita Shirley with 12.9 points. The Lady Lions fared well in the state standings. Mary Montgomery ranked 10th in the state in overall scoring. Mary also ranked 3rd in the state in field goal percentage while Lanita Shirley ranked 4th and Phyllis Verdell ranked 9th. Flash also ranked 9th in free throw percentage, 2nd in rebounding and 7th in the state for steals. Thanks to their coach and friend Jerry Loftice, the Lady Lions had a good season.

To lose games by one or two points is enough to make anyone want to give up. But the baseball players from Piedmont didn't. Their record was 2 and 34 but their coach Clarence Duncan kept his players determination up through hot games and hot practices. Way to Fight, Baseball Team!

The 1980 Tennis Team

l to r: Bob Dawkins, Donnie Brewster, David Friend, Danny Thomas, John Hilton, Coach Dr. Ralph Singer.

The 1980 Piedmont College Tennis Team had a record of one win and six losses. The Team's lone victory came in the only home match of the season. In this match the Lion's defeated Atlanta Christian College by the score of five to four. The Team enjoyed playing on the newly resurfaced courts and wishes to thank both the college administration and the alumni association for undertaking the repair of the courts. Perhaps the 1981 season will see the Team play as well as the courts look!

Mens' Track

In a brief but impressive ceremony concluding the track and field meet of the Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference at West Georgia College, April 23rd, Piedmont College received two outstanding awards. The Piedmont Team was awarded an impressive second place "Runner-up" trophy, and it's coach, Dr. Jesse Pierce, was named "Track Coach of the Year." Two Piedmont stars were presented with plaques indicating first-place finishes: John Butler for the shot put and Jon Cantrell for the discus throw. These men also placed first in the District 25 competition, but was scored separately. Senior members of the team competing in their final college meet were John Butler and Michael Dixon. A freshman member of the team, Thomas Opoku of Ghana, scored for Piedmont in the 100 meter dash and shows good promise for the future at Piedmont College. Others who added to Piedmont's excellent showing were the relay team of Jimmy Burnett, Mike Dixon, Kim Gunter, and William Ware which placed second in the 200 and 400 meter races; Ware, with second place in the 880 yard run, and Ricky White placed third in the shot put. Several Piedmont Athletes scored in the District count and added fourth place points in the Conference count.

Womens' Track

The womens' track team at Piedmont College scored 29 points against Berry College at Barren Field in Rome on April 9th. Berry has long enjoyed an enviable record in this sport, and was able to pit a formidable array of talent against the women from Piedmont College. Nevertheless, the Piedmont Lady Lions did well. Two outstanding performances marked the day for Piedmont competitors. Martha Kelly, senior, took the 100-year low hurdles by a wide margin, placed second in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash; took a second in the high jump; and Phyllis Verdell, junior, placed second in the shot put, second in the 110-yard low hurdles, third in the 440-yard low hurdles, third in the javelin throw. Another member of the team, Melanie Striebich, gathered points by placing third in the 220-yard dash and in the 100-yard dash. Other events provided opportunity for experience and recognition amongst the group.

Graduating Seniors In Sports

Wayne Harrison, A. B. McMillian, Tony Neal, Alan Charles, Mike Herring, Tim Cagle, Martha Kelly.

Tony Neal, a member of the 1980 Piedmont College Tennis Team: Tony played two years on the team (1979, junior year and 1980, senior year). During the 1979 season, he played third doubles, and during the 1980 season he played fifth singles and third doubles. Alan Charles, A. B. McMillian, and Wayne Harrison: members of the 1980 Basketball Team: Alan Charles, or "Doc" as he was called, was a hustler, a complete team player. "The team always came first in Doc's book," said Coach Cave. A. B. McMillian was too small to play inside and not quick enough to play outside, but he contributed greatly to the team effort with his hustle and aggressiveness. Wayne Harrison was "a good ball handler, a good outside shooter and an unselfish offensive player. He was a good team player."

Mike Herring and Tim Cagle, members of the 1980 Piedmont College Baseball Team: Mike "Clyde" Herring, played for 4 years as a catcher for the Lions. He had a .250 average for the year. In one game against Shorter, "Clyde" hit a home run for Piedmont. Tim Cagle also played 4 years for Piedmont. Tim played left field. His season average was .308. In one game Tim went 3 for 4, hitting two triples and a double. Martha Kelly, a member of the Piedmont College Track team: In the 1979 season, Martha broke a state record in the low hurdles, running them at 17.2. This past 1980 season, she broke her own record, running them in 16.1. Martha was a member of the track team for 4 years. She was also a member of the girls softball team in 1978.

Fifteen Piedmont Students Named To Who's Who

The 1979-1980 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will carry the names of 15 students from Piedmont College who have been selected as being among the country's most outstanding campus leaders. Nominations, which were opened at Piedmont College for the first time to members of the Junior Class, resulted in the selection of eleven Seniors and four Juniors at the college. Of the fifteen selected at Piedmont College, nine are from the state of Georgia, six from out-of-state.

Campus nominating committees, composed of both faculty and members of the student body, have included the names of the fifteen students based on their academic achievement, leadership in extracurricular activities, service to the community, and future potential. These fifteen Piedmont College students join an elite group of students from more than 1200 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations. Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

The eleven Seniors selected are, from Georgia: Ray Adams of Toccoa, Angela Anderson and Edward Ariail of Cornelia, Timothy Cagle of Alpharetta, Gail Carr of Maysville, Martha Kelly of Clarkesville, and Jerry Roberts of Demorest; and from out-of-state: Wendy Hawks of Green Bay, Wisconsin; Donnie Hitt of Culpepper, Virginia; Anthony Neal of Sanford, Florida; and Cheryl Summers of Wayne, Michigan. The four Juniors are: Jonathan Cantrell of Lithia Springs; Helen Fowler of LaGrange; William Dow of Baldwinville, Massachusetts; and Gary Watts of Templeton, Massachusetts.

MILITARY SCIENCE

On January 4, 1980; Military Science (ROTC) officially began at Piedmont College. It was the result of extensive coordination between Dr. James E. Walter (President of Piedmont College). Dr. Mary C. Lane (Dean) and Major Dick Thomspon (University of Georgia). The program has been well received by the students and has been steadily increasing in popularity.

Military Science is a program that provides college-trained officers for the U.S. Army. The Army National Guard and the U.S. Army Reserve. The four year program consists of a two-year Basic Course and a two-year Advanced Course. The Basic Course is normally taken during the freshman and sophomore years. The course work includes instruction in leadership, tactics, map reading, self defense, rifle marksmanship, mountaineering and the Soviet threat. The Basic Course imposes no military obligation on the part of the students and they may withdraw at any time. Students who have taken Junior ROTC or have active duty military experience may receive credit for the Basic Course. Piedmont College currently has four students that have received this credit and are enrolled in the Advanced Course.

The Advanced Course provides further instruction in leadership development, organization and management, tactics and administration. Advance course cadets attend a six-week Advance Camp at Fort Bragg, N.C. between their Junior and Senior years of college. This camp permits cadets to put into practice the principles and theories they have acquired from on-campus classroom instruction. Cadets receive approximately $500.00 plus travel expenses, room and board, medical and dental care, and other benefits. In addition to this, the Advanced Course cadets receive $100.00 (tax-free) for up to ten months a year while in the program. When students enter the Advanced Course, they agree to finish ROTC instruction, to accept a commission and to accept an assignment in either the Active Army, the Army National Guard or the U.S. Army Reserve. They will serve an active duty for three months to three years. Provisions exist so individuals can be guaranteed assignment in the Army National Guard or U.S. Army Reserve with an active duty for training requirement ranging from three to six months.

In addition to the subsistence pay described above, financial assistance is also available is the form of four-, three-, two-, and one-year scholarships. The scholarships provide tuition, textbooks, lab fees and a living allowance of up to $1,000.00 (tax-free) each year the scholarship is in effect. The monitary value of the scholarship depends on the tuition and other educational costs of the college attended.

SPECIAL SERVICES - Special services is a group designed to help students with their education, their careers and their lives. They organize the Upward Bound weekends, in which many students at high school level come to Piedmont for short classes and tutoring as well as travel to various places in Georgia. Mrs. Ellen O'Neil and Pat Austin do a very commendable job with this program and we would like them to know we appreciate their services to the students and Piedmont.

Memories

A Friend Like You

Time goes on and makes its changes,
But some things remain steadfast:
Memories with thoughts and fancies
That stay with us to the last.

In the days and years to follow
None will be more sincere and true,
Than the thoughts and heartfelt wishes
For a friend like you.

Now it seems to me that every epilogue ever written always starts out with the editor expressing his or her appreciation for all the cooperation they got while putting the yearbook together. Well, this won't be any different, except for one small thing. This yearbook did not have an editor. It was put out not by one person but by many people. People like Nolan Nix, Helen Fowler, Bill Read, Connie Stowe, Cheryl Summers, Ralph Singer, Ralph Boggess, Debby James, Cindy Wicks, Ellen O'Neil, Pat Austin, Coach Cave, Jerry and Debbie Loftice and the faculty of Piedmont College. I would like to thank everyone for their patience and cooperation in helping me get this book out. I would like to especially thank Ross Henderson, our yearbook rep, who without his help and patience, this book could never have been completed and Dr. Mary C. Lane, whose cooperation was very deeply appreciated. I would like to apologize to the students, faculty and staff of Piedmont College for the tardiness of this book. But please! Don't criticize things you know nothing of. There is an old Indian saying that says: "Thou shalt not criticize thy neighbor until you have walked a mile in his moccasins." It's something to think about.
